

Listening Comprehension Exercises

1. What is the title of the fable?
2. What were the frogs living together in at the beginning of the story?
3. What was the initial situation of the frogs in the fable?
4. Why did the frogs ask for a king?
5. What did the frogs get as a king?
6. How did the frogs initially react to the "King" given to them?
7. Who was the first frog to come out and look at the king?
8. What did the wise old frog say about the "King" given to them?
9. What did Jupiter throw into the water as the king for the frogs?
10. Who eventually realized that the king?
11. What lesson or moral can be derived from the fable: The Frogs Who Ask For A King?

Draw a picture to represent the story.