

The Road Not Taken - Answers

1. The theme of the poem, "The Road Not Taken", is about choices and their consequences.
2. The purpose of the poem is to highlight the importance of individual choices and the uncertainty that comes with them.
3. The tone of the poem is reflective and contemplative.
4. According to the speaker, it can lead to unique and fulfilling experience.
5. The speaker finds himself at two diverging paths in a yellow wood.
6. The speaker regrets not being able to travel both roads simultaneously, he must choose one path and leave the other behind.
7. The speaker took the path less travelled because this path had the potential for growth and exploration as indicated in lines "because it was grassy and wanted wear".
8. The speaker discovers that regardless of the path chosen, both opportunities held the potential for equal experience and outcomes.
9. The speaker asserts their independence and willingness to explore uncharted territories.