

CLIMATE ZONES 3

Observe the map below. Then answer the following questions.

A. Name the climate zones as shown on the map.

1

2

3

4

5-

6

B. The line at A, shown at 0 degrees, is called the _____.

C. Match the following according to the map above.

SORT ELEMENTS

- Saudi Arabia
- Jamaica
- Australia
- Madagascar
- Antarctica

B-
C-
D-
E-
F-

D. Name the climate zone for the following countries. Write your answer in the space provided.

Ethopia- _____ zone

Guyana - _____ zone

Cuba- _____ zone

Jamaica – _____ zone

India- _____ zone

Spain - _____ zone

Australia- mostly _____ zone

Saudi Arabia – _____ zone

Madagascar - _____ zone

Antarctica _____ zone

Arctic _____ zone

New Zealand – _____ zone

E. Match the circles of latitude.

SORT ELEMENTS

- The zone immediately to the north is called the Southern Temperate Zone
- Its latitude is defined to be 0° .
- Its latitude is currently 23.43664° south of the Equator,
- It is currently 23.43664° north of the Equator.
- The zone immediately to the south is called the Northern Temperate Zone

Tropic of Cancer
Tropic of Capricorn
Equator
Arctic Circle
Antarctic Circle

F. At least once a year, one can see the sun visible for twenty-four hours at any location of the _____

☐ Tropic of Cancer

☐ Equator

☐ Arctic Circle.

☐ Tropic of Capricorn

G. The equator passes through several countries. Which of the country below it does does not?

☐ Brazil

☐ Guyana

☐ Indonesia

☐ Columbia

☐ Kenya

☐ Uganda

H. Denmark (Greenland) is located in the _____.

☐ Northern Polar Zone

☐ Southern Temperate Zone

☐ Northern Temperate Zone

☐ Southern Polar Zone

I. India is located in the _____.

☐ Northern Temperate Zone

☐ Southern Tropical Zone

☐ Northern Tropical Zone

☐ Southern Temperate Zone

J. What zones would you find the following seasons?.

a. Dry/Wet Season - _____

b. Four Seasons Cycle - _____