

STEM AND LEAF PLOTS

Stem and leaf plot is a form of bar graphs in which numeric data are plotted. The data value is split: the tens digit from the “stem” and the last digit is place on the leaf.

Observe the stem and leaf plots below for a class of students. Their’ test scores for a Grammar test is shown below.

Questions

1. What is the range of the above stem and leaf?
2. What is the median value of the above stem and leaf?
3. What is the mode for the above stem and leaf plot?
4. What is the mean for the stem and leaf plot above?