LAZY NED

Independent Reading: Read the poem below. Read aloud then answer the questions that follow.

Notes for reading: Preview the text to be read. Before you start reading, ask yourself, what does the poet want me to think or feel? Do I agree with the author? While you read pay close attention to the details presented in the text.

1. “‘T is royal fun,” cried lazy Ned,
“To coast, upon my fine, new sled,
And beat the other boys;
But then, I cannot bear to climb
The tiresome hill, for every time
It more and more annoys.”

2. So, while his schoolmates glided
by,
And gladly tugged uphill, to try
Another merry race,
Too indolent to share their plays,
Ned was compelled to stand and
gaze,
While shivering in his place.

3. Thus, he would never take the pains
To seek the prize that labour gains,
Until the time had passed;
For, all his life, he dreaded still
The silly bugbear of uphill,
And died a dunce at last.

Discussion

1. What game do you to play? Why is it important to you?
2. Do you think the poet's words were harsh in the last stanza? Explain your answer
