

Name: _____

Date: _____

Confusing Words Worksheet

Sometimes we can get mixed up when words sound alike. Here are some commonly-confused words.

Examples: They're good friends. There is my friend. Their bows are blue.

The worksheets and exercises in this section will help you overcome the troublesome usage of certain words and expressions.

1. Two children were on _____ way to school.
2. A train hit _____ car.
3. Please, go over that bridge, _____ there.
4. I do not think _____ playing in the barn.
5. _____ isn't much I can say.
6. A man brought _____ children home safely.
7. I am sure _____ not going with us.
8. Oh, look _____ friends again.
9. _____ is much on the table to lose.
10. _____ is no time to play in the park.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Confusing Words Worksheet

11. _____ will be brief showers throughout the day.

12. The children enjoyed _____ usual supper of bread and milk.

13. _____ is great danger standing at the edge of a cliff.

14. _____ honest people.

15. James observed that _____ clothing was old-fashioned.

16. Lacy and Lance says that _____ spending more time at the ranch.

17. Is _____ nothing decent to eat in this place?

18. _____ will be a full moon tonight.

19. The children, _____ very scared of snakes.

20. Once upon a time _____ a visitor came knocking at my front door.

