

Name: _____

Date: _____

Study Skills Worksheet

Vocabulary practice

Match the words and meaning.

SORT ELEMENTS

a written statement that begins a civil lawsuit

an individual (or business) against whom a lawsuit is filed.

a legal action started by a plaintiff against a defendant

a person or business that files a formal complaint with the court.

a legal procedure individuals or business take dealing with debt

plaintiff
lawsuit
defendant
complaint
bankruptcy

COMPLETE THE FOLLOWING SENTENCES USING THE ABOVE WORDS.

1. Have you a _____ to make?
2. When a group of people sue a collector, this is a class action
_____.
3. The injured _____, after paying for treatment in a hospital,
was able to recover the cost of the treatment.
4. I am trying to avoid _____ by only buying necessities.
5. The _____ was convicted in April 2010 of selling illegal substances.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Study Skills Worksheet

Match the word to its meaning.

SORT ELEMENTS

wilfully telling an untruth under oath.

a serious crime, usually punishable by at least one year in prison.

an agreement between two or more people

property of all kinds, tangible and intangible compensation for loss or injury

a written or printed statement made under oath.

assets
felony affidavit
contract
damages
perjury

COMPLETE THE FOLLOWING SENTENCES USING THE ABOVE WORDS.

The company require you to bring along a signed _____ from a doctor if you got in an accident.

Can I raise finance on these _____?

Lonnie's _____ is clear, but the judge accepted his words as evidence.

Your employment _____ covers two years.

His most recent incident is a _____ drug possession charge.

Thomas recovered _____ from the injuries he sustained in the fire.