

Name: _____

Date: _____

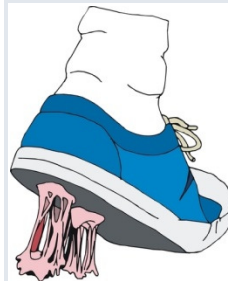

Senses in Poetry 1

You have five senses that help you understand the world around you.

Match the picture to the sense used.

SORT ELEMENTS

- It looks blue and thin.
- This tastes sweet.
- This sounds loud and musical.
- This feels sticky.
- This smells stink and spoiled.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Senses in Poetry 1

Match the words to the sense.

SORT ELEMENTS

- taste
- touch
- smell
- Sound
- Sight

golden

squeal

peppery

rancid

scratchy

Read the following sentences and determine the sense used:

smell, taste, sound, sight, feel.

You toss the kites on high.

“Wake, little children!” they cried in glee.

The stem is jointed, and it contains a grey pith which is full of sweet, sticky juice.

The garden had a flowery, wooden, spicy fragrance.

So he jumped into a manger full of soft hay.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Senses in Poetry 1

Splash! Into the water went his own bone as he opened his mouth to snap.

The thick covering or husk of the nut is used for making mattresses or spun into rope or coarse twine.

She sat down by the spinning wheel and began to weep more bitterly than ever.

Some men and women are loading the cane on trucks.

Match the sense to the body part.

SORT ELEMENTS

- ☐ Smell
- ☐ Hear
- ☐ See
- ☐ Taste
- ☐ Feel

