

Name: _____

Punctuation Marks Worksheet 10

Rewrite each sentence correctly and place the missing comma(s).

Sorry mum.

Yes you can.

Anita where are you?

The dragon a huge beast came out of the cave.

Name: _____

Punctuation Marks Worksheet 10

My teacher Ms. Springer is always patient.

You have untidy careless scruffy writing.

It was a cold damp rainy day.

Name: _____

Punctuation Marks Worksheet 10

Rewrite in the space provided, the sentence with the shortened form of the words in bold.

There will be lots of insects in the backyard for Jenny to catch.

She will not go without her favourite net.

We shall be happy to see her catch a butterfly.

Who is standing there?

We are catching insects this evening.

Name: _____

Punctuation Marks Worksheet 10

I am sure I will be helping her catch butterflies.

You need not worry about Jenny.

She does not fear insects at all.

If you want, I would stand here and watch you.

The bees would not sting you if you don't provoke them.
