

Name: _____

Date: _____

Could have, Should have, and Would have Worksheet

Could have, should have, and would have are used to create conditional sentences. They indicate:

1. advice (should have),
2. possibilities (could have), and
3. imagined result (would have).

Select the correct verb for the sentence.

Matthew thought to himself that he should have _____ to bed earlier.

☐

go

☐

gone

☐

went

☐

going

Daniel should not have _____ the dog into his room.

☐

allow

☐

allowed

☐

let

☐

letted

Milo could have _____ of the bicycle and hurt himself.

☐

fall

☐

fell

☐

fallen

☐

falling

Name: _____

Date: _____

Could have, Should have, and Would have Worksheet

Mark could have _____ all day.

swim

swam

swum

swimmed

“I should have _____ inside today,” said Willow.

stay

stayed staying

Mr. Clarke should have _____ his report since morning.

complete

completes completing

completed

I should have _____ a hat and raincoat before I left home.

wear

wore

worn