

Name: _____

Worksheet: Types of Sentences 2

1. Select the best word to complete the following questions.

- a) _____ many legs has an octopus?
- b) _____ are you going?
- c) _____ is your best friend?
- d) _____ will you visit me?
- e) _____ are you leaving so early?
- f) _____ time is it?
- g) _____ is Julia hiding under?

2. Change the sentence into asking sentences. Use the hints given then type the rest of sentence in the space provided.

Julia is hiding under the table.

- a) Where _____
- b) Why _____
- c) Who _____

Name: _____

3. Circle the exclamatory sentences below.

☐ I love pizza!

☐ What a horrible day!

☐ Maurice, stop shouting!

☐ I have only one dollar.

☐ Can you come here?

☐ I am going to the beach.

4. Write an exclamation sentence if...

Someone was bullying you.

You got a lovely present.

5. Match the exclamation sentence with the emotion expressed.

SORT ELEMENTS

Surprise

Frustration

Love

Anger

Fright

Sorrow

You came back for me!

You're so adorable!

You never mean what you say!

These equations are driving me crazy!

I really miss her!

Oh no! The dog is coming towards us!

Name: _____

6. Indicate whether a command is forceful or polite. Write forceful or polite at the end of the following sentences.

Go clean your room _____

Janice, please don't come late tomorrow. _____

Have a seat. _____

Don't look at her. _____

Please, stand here. _____

Give it back. _____

Please, chew your food quieter. _____

Give me a can of peas. _____

Leave it. _____

Open your presents. _____

7. Type "imperative", "interrogative", "declarative" or "exclamatory" in the space provided to state the type of sentence

The ruler is on the floor. _____

I am so glad to see you! _____

Are you going to the party? _____

Open the door, please. _____

Bring my pen for me. _____

I got wet in the rain. _____

Wow, that is one big fish! _____

Do you know him? _____

Turn on the light. _____

I have to go home. _____