Creative Writing Worksheet – Transition Practice

Add transitional words for the following paragraphs:

Paragraph 1: Monroe was tall and thin. She looked like she could not stand straight. She met her best friend at a pool. She was learning to swim. They discovered they both like drawing. They became good friends.

Paragraph 2: It was December 2nd, the day I lost my bicycle. The country had its local election. I was too young to vote. I went to the polling station with my parents.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.
