

Name: _____

Creative Writing Worksheet Quiz

Answer all questions.

Select your answers from the options available.

1. A writing that gives hints as to what will come is using the ____ technique
flashback suspense foreshadowing

2. This proofreading mark ^ means _____.
a. to insert a word in the space.
b. to capitalize a letter.
c. to remove a letter in a word.

3. Mark is has an essay to write about the causes and effects of yellow fever? This is an example of _____ writing.
persuasive narrative expository

4. _____ writing creates images in your mind with the use of the five senses.
descriptive expository persuasive

5. Every story must have a _____, where the main character struggles with something.
resolution climax introduction conflict

6. At this stage you would have already organized your thoughts, and have a rough draft of your essay. This stage is called the _____.
drafting revising/editing stage proofreading

Name: _____

Type your answers in the space provided.

7. A narrator's perspective could be limited or _____.

Type True or False for the following statements.

8. If I don't feel strongly about a topic or know the audience, I can still write a good persuasive essay. _____

9. I can use my opinion in persuasive writing only if it is backed up factually. _____

10. Interviewing is a good way to collect relevant information I don't know. _____

11. This is an example of a _____ writing

