DESCRIPTIVE WRITING - GUIDED PARAGRAPH

Complete the paragraph. Select a word in brackets.

Wolf can be very (unforgiving, vindictive, dishonest) some times, but most times he is loyal and obedient. My cute and (serious, ferocious, playful) dog ate my homework. I know it is hard to believe but he really ate my homework. I had a lot of homework, and Wolf wanted to go out to play in the huge (heap, cluster, bundle) of leaves Pa just raked. I told him, "Stay and sleep in your tiny (shed, kennel, coop) Perhaps later." But the small, (dishonest, miserable, proud) dog did not. He (barked, howled, screamed) continually until I finished my homework. Wolf was (angry, confused, furious) now. Somehow, he got a hold of my homework sheet and ran with it. He ran out the door and through the yard. I ran after him (shouting, bawling, screaming) his name. By the time I found him, he had (devoured, chewed, licked) half of the sheet. I am not pleased with Wolf - that was a (mean, selfish, vain) thing to do.
