WORKSHEET - MAKING INFERENCES 1

Use the details from each sentence or story to make decisions about the characters. Read the sentence below. Then answer the question below.

1. Johnny Reed was a little boy who never had seen a snowstorm till he was six years old.

Select the sentence that tells us where Johnny lived before he was six years old.

- ☐ He lived where the sun shines down on beautiful grooves and fields.
- ☐ His grandmother lives where the snow falls in winter.
- ☐ He had lived in a warm country, where the sun shines.

2. Johnny was standing at the window when it came down. "O mamma!" he cried, joyfully, "Do come quick, and see these little white birds flying down from heaven."

"They are not birds, Johnny," said mamma, smiling.

"Then maybe the little angels are losing their feathers! Oh! Do tell me what it is; is it sugar? Let me taste it," said Johnny. But when he tasted it, he gave a little jump—it was so cold.

What did Johnny see?

☐ feathers

☐ snow

☐ fog

3. These birds are found in the West Indies and South America. The crest of the tiny head of one of these shines like a sparkling crown of colored light. The shades of color that adorn its breast, are equally brilliant. As the bird flits from one object to another, it looks more like a bright flash of sunlight than it does like a living being.

Circle the picture of this bird.
