

The pedestrian crossing sign is a warning sign. It tells drivers who meet a pedestrian crossing to slow down or stop. The driver must allow any people to cross safely. You may have seen these signs near your school and church.

Direction: Colour the sign below. Note the background is usually yellow and the man is coloured black.

