Complex Sentences Worksheet

A simple sentence is a sentence with one subject and one predicate. Both the subject and the predicate of a simple sentence may be compound.

A complex sentence combines a dependent clause with an independent clause using a subordinator (such as before, so, but, and, since) or a relative pronoun (such as who, whom, that, which, what, etc.).

Copy the sentences. Underline the main clauses once and the subordinate clauses twice.

1. Unless you go with us, we won't know how to get there.
2. Whenever it rains, we bring in the dog.
3. We will know when you arrive.
4. Anyone who is going to the park should be at school today.
5. Mark cleaned his room before he left for the party.
