

Worksheet Making Predictions 1

Use story details to guess what will happen next?

1. Jim likes to play with his LEGOs on the stairs. His mom comes down the stairs carrying a heavy laundry bag. She steps on a LEGO piece. What will happen next?

- She will drop the laundry bag
- Her feet will hurt.
- She will move faster down the stairs.
- She sprain her arms.

2. John rolled his bike over a some sharp stones. A stone gets stuck. What will happen next?

- Continue riding. Nothing to worry about.
- The tire is ruined and needs to be replaced.
- He rides without the tire.

3. John and Paul went fishing out at sea. The tide was low and the duo accidentally rode the boat over some rocks. This cause a hole in the boat and water was rushing in. What will happen next? Select the options applicable.

- The men should put on their life jacket.
- The men will abandon their boat and swim to shore.
- Call the coastguard for help.
- The men will dive in the water.
- The men will try to plug the leak.

Name: _____

Date: _____

4. Martha is baking a cake. She fell asleep while watching a television series. She wakes up at the end of the second show. What will happen next? Select the options applicable.

- She continues watching the show.
- She remembers she is baking a cake
- The cake is golden, but still edible.
- The cake is burnt.

5. A boatman, Mr. and Mrs. Rose, and some children were on a boat. Two boys would not sit still. One boy wanted a stick which the other held in his hand. He lost his balance in trying to get the stick, and fell into the water. Mr. and Mrs. Rose both started up, and stretched out their arms to save him; but in so doing, they upset the boat. What happens next?

- Everyone were in the greatest danger of being drowned.
- Mr. Rose fell in the water.
- The boat rocked back and forth.
- Everyone fell in the water.

6. George and his friends were playing cricket in the road. George hit the ball and sent it through a window, breaking it. What happens next? Select the appropriate options.

- George apologizes to the owner.
- George and his friends run away.
- George has to replace the broken window.
- George and the boys celebrate a run.