

Name: _____

Worksheet – Subject and Predicate

1. Identify the BOLD portion of the sentences as either subject or predicate.

a. The rough seas capsized the little boat. _____

b. Two chimpanzee escaped from the zoo. _____

c. A Hamburger can be satisfying meals. _____

d. I cannot find my watch. _____

e. The horse fell. _____

f. The greedy boy ate the whole pizza. _____

2. What does the words in bold represent in this sentence?

The hungry lion hid behind the bush.

a predicate

a subject

an object

3. What does the words in bold represent in this sentence?

The hungry lion hid behind the bush.

a predicate

a subject

an object

4. What does the words in bold represent in this sentence?

Stop making so much noise or I shall get cross.

a predicate

a subject

an object

5. What does the words in bold represent in this sentence?

Stop making so much noise or I shall get cross.

a predicate

a subject

an object

Name: _____

6. Which of the following groups of words is a clause?

The sun came out.

Hurry!

down by the sea

when he hurt himself.

7. Identify whether the underline word (words) in the sentences is one of the following: subject, or object. Write your answer in the space provided.

The dentist gave the children. _____

The lady lost the book. _____

She opened the cupboard. _____

The old man caught a salmon. _____

8. Identify in each sentence whether the word in bold is a subject, direct object or indirect object. Write your answer in the space provided.

Val is making the hamburgers for the children. _____

Cecil bought a new toy for his nephew. _____

They sold all the coconuts. _____

He bought the children chocolate. _____

We give them the parcel. _____

I have the folder. _____

She lost her purse. _____

The man sold the salmon to his cousin. _____

Name: _____

9. Which of the sentences below is a one-clause sentence?

A. Sharks swim.

B. Sharks swim in the sea.

10. Which of the following is a one-clause sentence?

A. Star shines.

B. A green-eye monster appeared from behind the tree.

C. Monsters are scary.