

Name: _____

Date: _____

Study Skills Worksheet

1. The following question will help you get familiar with proverbs.

Read the following proverbs and match them to their meaning.

SORT ELEMENTS

Think well before taking any serious step.

Don't be too confident about possible gains.

Too many helpers often get in one another's way.

Make the most of your opportunities when they come.

People who arrive at a place early are likely to be better off than those who come late.

Ignorant people usually talk more than wise people.

Proverbs:

The early bird catches the worm.
Don't count your chickens before they are hatched.
Too many cooks spoil the broth.
Empty vessels make most noise.
Make hay while the sun shines.
Look before you leap.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Study Skills Worksheet

2. Complete the following proverbs. Type the missing words.

- a) Make _____ while the _____ shines.
- b) Too many _____ spoil the _____ .
- c) Every _____ has its _____.
- d) Look before you _____ .
- e) The _____ bird catches the _____.
- f) Birds of a _____ flock _____.
- g) Empty _____ make the most _____ .
- h) No _____ is good news.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Study Skills Worksheet

Match a proverb that matches the meaning. Write your answers in the space provided.

SORT ELEMENTS

A persons' first responsibility is for the needs of their own family and friends.

It is helpful to have the advice from a second person.

A foolish person spends unwisely and could soon be out of money.

If you sort out a problem early, it make save extra work later.

Proverbs:

Great minds think alike.
Fine feathers make fine birds.
Charity begins at home.
A stitch in time saves nine.
A fool and his money are soon parted.
Two heads are better than one.	