

Grammar and Punctuation

A proper noun names a particular person, place or thing. Example, Bob. Notice the capital letter in the word “Bob”. Observe the sentence below.

Bob and the boys will take part in the All Fours Competition.

Exercise: Rewrite the passage below and correct the errors in the use of capital letters.

mr. brown is reading to sally, candy, and vishnu. He is reading about the caribbean islands. My favourite island is st. lucia. I hope to visit that island some time soon.