

BASIC MONEY SKILLS 2

The following exercises focuses on identifying the equivalence of coins and making change.

Exercises

1. QUESTION

Count the dollars and coins.

a) Amount of dollars = _____

Amount of cents = _____

Answer = $ _____ . _____ ¢ \leftarrow Note: convert the 100 cents to $1 then add the money.

b) Answer = $ _____ . _____ ¢ \leftarrow Note: convert the 100 cents to $1 then add the money.

c) Answer = $ _____ . _____ ¢ ⇐ Note: convert the 100 cents to $1 then add the money.

d) Answer = $ _____ . _____ ¢ ⇐ Note: convert the 100 cents to $1 then add the money.

e) Answer = $ _____ . _____ ¢ ⇐ Note: convert the 100 cents to $1 then add the money.

f) Answer = $ _____ . _____ ¢ \leftarrow Note: convert the 100 cents to $1 then add the money.

2. QUESTION

Count the dollar and decide how many will make ... bills?

a) How many 5 dollars does it make?

Amount of dollars = $ _____

b) How many ten dollars does it make?

Amount of dollars = $ _____

c) How many 20 dollars does it make?

Amount of dollars = $ _____

d) How many 50 dollars does it make?

Amount of dollars = $ _____

3. QUESTION

Leah bought $22.00 worth of bananas. She had a 50 dollar bill. Circle the change she would get.

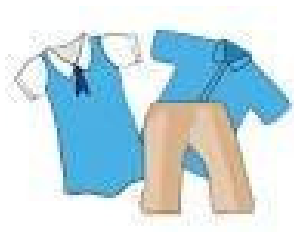

Answer = Her change is _____.

4. QUESTION

This is the amount of money Susanne has in her purse.

She wants to buy a new uniforms for her two children. The store sells the girl's dress for $75, the girl's shirt cost for $40, the boy's shirt for $47, and the boy's khaki pants for $75.

- a) Does Susanne has enough money to buy the uniforms for her son and daughter?
- b) Would she get back change? If yes, how much?

Guide Workings:

Girl's uniform
Boy's uniform
Total for uniform
Money in purse Change?

a) Write “Y” in the space next to the correct statement, and “N” next to the incorrect statements.

- Susanne can only buy the girl's uniform.
- Susanne can buy only the boy's uniform.
- Susanne can buy uniforms for both children.

b) Her change is _____.