

Creative Writing Worksheet

For each of the following paragraphs below, write a concluding sentence.

Exercise 1

My brother imitates everything I do. Growing up, I always thought having a younger brother would be the coolest thing ever. I imagined us playing video games together, riding bikes, and just generally being best buds. However, the reality of having a little brother turned out to be quite different from what I had imagined.

---

Exercise 2

The hospital children greeted the visitors at the gate. The hospital children were excitedly waiting at the gate for the arrival of their visitors. They couldn't wait to see who would come and bring some much-needed joy to their day.

---

Exercise 3

The teacher told us not to wander away from the main group. It was a beautiful day in the forest and our school had organized an excursion for us. We were all excited and eagerly listened to our teacher's instructions as we started our hike through the woods. The teacher warned us not to wander away from the main group and to stay within her sight at all times. She also reminded us about the dangers of getting lost in the forest.

---

Exercise 4

The rich man bought the most expensive car. The rich man, Marcus, had always been fascinated with cars. He had a collection of the most luxurious cars in the world, each one more expensive than the last. But one day, he decided to indulge in his passion and buy the most expensive car in the world.

---